> Within ninety days of the enactment of this act the Secretary of Energy shall review those recommendations of the President's Private Sector Survey on Cost Control and such other recommendations as may be included in the OMB report "Management of the United States Government—1986" and shall submit a report to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the appropriate Committees of the House and Senate on the implementation status of each such recommendation which affects the Department of Energy and which is within the authority and control of the Secretary for civilian research and development programs.

EXPLANATION OF AMENDMENTS

1. This amendment transfers the building systems test facility initiative from the Energy Conservation program to the Solar Buildings program in Solar Energy. This transfer more closely ties to ongoing programs.

2. This is a technical amendment to correct an error which was made when the bill was introduced.

3. This is a technical amendment to correct an error which was made when the bill was introduced.

4. This is a technical amendment to correct errors in the subsection designations which were made when the bill was introduced.

5. This is a technical amendment to correct an error which was made when the bill was introduced.

6. This amendment increases the general reduction applied to the Supporting Research and Technical Analysis program in order that the authorized total for these activities is the same as the FY 1986 request.

7. This amendment is a technical amendment to insert a project which was omitted when the bill was introduced.

8. This is a technical amendment to correct an error which was made when the bill was introduced.

9. This amendment broadens the scope of the study to be conducted by the Secretary of Energy to include a review of the OMB's management report in addition to the recommendations contained in the President's Private Sector Survey on Cost Control and to apply the Secretary's study to all those civilian research and development programs which are within his authority and control.
